MEDIA ADVISORY:

Secretary of State Alex Padilla to Visit his Alma Mater San Fernando High School

LOS ANGELES - Secretary of State Alex Padilla will visit his alma mater—San Fernando High School—TODAY as part of High School Voter Education Weeks (April 18 – 29).

Secretary of State Padilla will discuss the importance of voter registration and the role young people can play in shaping the future through civic participation. Padilla will be joined by his former High School Government teacher—Alex Reza.

“Mr. Reza was the person who helped me register to vote. Mr. Reza always challenged his students to become active in their communities. We should celebrate all teachers who motivate their students to become engaged and informed citizens.” Secretary of State Padilla said.
