Statement of Information: Suspension Prevention and Recovery

Thursday, December 4, 2025
10:00 AM – 11:00 AM

Join Shirley N. Weber, Ph.D., California Secretary of State, and the California Secretary of State Business Programs Division staff as they share vital information regarding the submission of Statements of Information and how to prevent your entity from being suspended. Learn from our subject matter experts as they explain how best to avoid and remedy your business status should your entity face a possible suspension.

Topics include:

- Overview of what a Statement of Information is, why it is important and how and when to file
- Review of the delinquency and suspension cycle
- Consequences and penalties if not filed on time
- What does it mean to be "suspended" and lose your rights to do business in California
- Steps needed to get your entity back in good standing
