Election Day Holiday Initiative Enters Circulation

Election Day Holiday. Initiative Statute.

SACRAMENTO – Secretary of State Debra Bowen today announced that the proponent of a new initiative may begin collecting petition signatures for his measure.

The Attorney General prepares the legal title and summary that is required to appear on initiative petitions. When the official language is complete, the Attorney General forwards it to the proponent and to the Secretary of State. The Secretary of State then provides calendar deadlines to the proponent and to county elections officials, and the initiative may be circulated for signatures. The Attorney General's official title and summary for this measure is as follows:

ELECTION DAY HOLIDAY. INITIATIVE STATUTE. Declares a state holiday on Election Day – the Tuesday following the first Monday in November during even-numbered years. Summary of estimate by Legislative Analyst and Director of Finance of fiscal impact on state and local government: Increased state costs once every two years of up to $20 million. (Initiative 08-0013.)

The Secretary of State's tracking number for this measure is 1345 and the Attorney General's tracking number is 08-0013.

The proponent for this measure, Roy Benson, must collect signatures of 433,971 registered voters – the number equal to 5% of the total votes cast for governor in the 2006 gubernatorial election – in order to qualify it for the ballot. The proponent has 150 days to circulate petitions for this measure, meaning the signatures must be collected by January 2, 2009.

The initiative proponent can be reached at royrbenson@stateholiday.com. No phone number was provided.
