

DEBRA BOWEN

CALIFORNIA SECRETARY OF STATE NEWS RELEASE

FOR PLANNING PURPOSES
July 1, 2010

Contact: Shannan Velayas
(916) 653-6575

MEDIA ADVISORY

Secretary of State Bowen Debuts New Exhibit at State Archives: 'California in Focus'

WHAT: Secretary of State Debra Bowen announced the installation of a new exhibit at the California State Archives titled "California in Focus," which explores the Golden State's history through detailed photographic collections.

The exhibit highlights some of the more than 185,000 photographs housed in the State Archives, taken by journalists, government officials and others over the past 160 years. The photographs depict California's natural wonders, political campaigns, infrastructure, government, and the struggles and triumphs of Californians.

WHEN: Now through October 2010
Monday through Friday, and first Saturday of each month
For hours, call (916) 653-2246

WHERE: California State Archives, 4th floor
1020 O Street
Sacramento

###