Secretary of State Debra Bowen Certifies List Of Candidates for November 2 General Election

SACRAMENTO – Secretary of State Debra Bowen today released the certified list of candidates who will appear on the November 2, 2010, General Election ballot.

The statewide constitutional office, legislative and congressional winners from each qualified political party's June 8 primary have advanced to the general election. The nonpartisan constitutional office of Superintendent of Public Instruction will list the top two vote-getters from the June primary. Along with the nominees from the six parties, three candidates who are unaffiliated with a qualified political party will appear on the ballot. California's Supreme Court and Court of Appeal justices who are due for retention or confirmation elections will also appear on the ballot.

This year, all of California's constitutional offices, all 53 Congressional representatives, all 80 State Assembly seats and the 20 even-numbered State Senate seats will be on the ballot.

The official certified list of candidates, with ballot designations and contact information for each candidate, is available at www.sos.ca.gov/elections/2010-elections/2010-election-information/november-2010/certified-list.pdf.

A certified list of candidates for the November 2, 2010, Senate District 1 Special Primary Election will be available September 27.

The last day to register to vote in the November 2 General Election is October 18. The last day to request a vote-by-mail ballot is October 26.
