Secretary of State Bruce McPherson Reminds Californians of Last Day to Register to Vote for
November 8th Special Statewide Election

Secretary of State Office will remain open until 8pm tonight to accept registration cards

Sacramento, CA --- Secretary of State Bruce McPherson today joined students at San Jose State University to register voters in time for today's deadline to register for the November 8th Special Statewide Election.

"On November 8th, Californians will be casting votes about issues that will impact each one of us," said Secretary McPherson. "I encourage all eligible voters who are not yet registered to vote, to get their registration materials in today."

Secretary McPherson has been traveling up and down the state to encourage Californians to get educated about the issues on the ballot for the upcoming election. In addition to meeting with college students, Secretary McPherson has been visiting with high school seniors, members of the senior community and other community based organizations to ensure Californians have the tools they need to cast their votes on November 8th.

Registration materials are available in all U.S. Post Offices, the Department of Motor Vehicles offices, county clerks' offices, most county offices and on-line at www.ss.ca.gov. Registration cards must be turned in to election officials or postmarked no later than today, Monday, October 24, for voters to be eligible to cast a ballot in the November 8th election.

The Secretary of State's office in Sacramento will remain open tonight until 8pm, accepting voter registration cards. The office is located at 1500 11th Street, Sacramento, CA.
