MEDIA ADVISORY

Secretary of State Bowen to Honor Legislative Black Caucus with State Archives Exhibit on Juneteenth

WHAT: Secretary of State Debra Bowen will host the public opening of an exhibit honoring the 40th anniversary of California's Legislative Black Caucus. She will be joined by the current chair of the Legislative Black Caucus, Assemblyman Mervyn Dymally, as well as other members of the Legislative Black Caucus and leaders from throughout California.

On display until September, the exhibit narrates the history of the Legislative Black Caucus through photographs and documents donated by the Legislative Black Caucus to the California State Archives.

As the custodian of the Archives, Secretary of State Bowen maintains the complete records of the official acts of the Legislature and Executive Departments of the state government, as well as all books, records, maps, photographs, films and other artifacts relevant to California's history.

WHEN: Tuesday, June 19, 2007
3:00 – 5:00 p.m.

WHERE: California State Archives
4th Floor (above the California Museum for History, Women and the Arts)
1020 O Street
Sacramento
