Secretary of State Releases List of Presidential Candidates for February 2008 Presidential Primary

SACRAMENTO – Secretary of State Debra Bowen today released the list of “generally recognized” candidates she intends to place on the February 5, 2008 Presidential Primary Election ballot in California.

The major party candidates selected are those who are generally recognized throughout the state and country as actively seeking their party’s nomination. That determination is based on a number of factors, including whether a candidate:

- Participates in candidate debates;
- Actively campaigns in California;
- Appears in public opinion polls; and/or
- Qualifies for federal campaign matching funds.

Additionally, Secretary Bowen asked each of the six California political parties to submit a list of candidates whom they recognize as seeking their party’s nomination.

Secretary Bowen can place additional candidate names on the list until November 29, when the list of presidential candidates is officially certified. She cannot remove any names from the list once they have been announced unless a candidate asks to be removed by filing an affidavit with the Secretary of State’s office.

The last presidential primary, in March 2004, had 20 candidates on the “generally recognized” candidate list. This year, with an earlier California Presidential Primary and no presidential incumbent running, the candidate list has 51 names.

The complete listing of the generally recognized candidates and their contact information is attached and will be updated regularly at http://www.sos.ca.gov/elections/elections\_cand.htm as new information becomes available.
